

SIPPET Study: One Year Later. New Insights to Help Manage “my Next Patient”

Grifols ISTH 2017 Afternoon Sponsored Symposium

Sunday, July 9th
14:15 – 15:30, Room A8
CityCube Berlin, Germany

Chair: Flora Peyvandi
Co-chair: David Lillicrap

- 14:15 - 14:30 · Welcome and Introduction
David Lillicrap (Kingston, ON, Canada)
- 14:30 - 14:45 · SIPPET Study: One Year Later - Implications for Generalizability of Findings
Guy Young (Los Angeles, CA, USA)
- 14:45 - 14:55 · SIPPET Subanalysis: Timing of Inhibitor Development in SIPPET Study
Flora Peyvandi (Milan, Italy)
- 14:55 - 15:05 · SIPPET Subanalysis: Genetic Risk Stratification in SIPPET Study
Flora Peyvandi (Milan, Italy)
- 15:05 - 15:10 · Panel Introduction: do the SIPPET Findings Influence the Management of my Next PUP?
Flora Peyvandi (Milan, Italy)
- 15:10 - 15:25 · Panel Discussion
Guy Young (Los Angeles, CA, USA); Peter Collins (Cardiff, UK); Carmen Escuriola-Ettingshausen (Frankfurt, Germany)
- 15:25 - 15:30 · Q&A

Please note: This symposium may include some results from research, clinical trials and scientific publications which may refer to medicines or indications not authorized in your country. Accordingly, any specific information provided on such medicines or indications is not intended as promotional material, but only as part of this educational symposium. Grifols complies with all federal and state reporting requirements regarding any value or expense associated with this event.